

1 Complete the sentences with the words from the box.

art lover, bookworm, chatterbox, computer geek,
drama queen, dynamo, music addict, science geek

- 1 You're such a _____! Will you let me say a word, please?
- 2 Ann can't keep calm when there's a tiny problem. She is a _____.
- 3 I know I'm a _____ – I'm in the school band, choir and Dance Club.
- 4 It looks like Ed wants to spend his whole life in that lab. He's a _____.
- 5 I think Lenny is a _____. The only thing she always talks about is computers.
- 6 My sister Mary is a real _____. She can paint anything, and it's always beautiful.
- 7 Don't be such a _____! You read so much when there are so many other things to do.
- 8 Jack is a _____! He's always active, and this year he's joined the school's football team.

2 Think of your classmates/friends/family members and their interests. Write about them, as in the example.

- 1 My friend Lilly is a science geek. She loves doing experiments, and she goes to the Science Club twice a week.
- 2 _____
- 3 _____
- 4 _____
- 5 _____
- 6 _____
- 7 _____
- 8 _____
- 9 _____

1 Guess and write the words next to their definitions.

- 1 _____ – an event at the end of a school year.
- 2 _____ – facts and information that you know.
- 3 _____ – the date when something was founded.
- 4 _____ – to give your time and energy to something.
- 5 _____ – the fact of being meaningful to others.
- 6 _____ – to give a special talk in front of people.
- 7 _____ – a person who has finished school completely.
- 8 _____ – to be different and not the same.
- 9 _____ – something that is not physical but emotional.
- 10 _____ – to have the same interests, opinions, traditions, etc.

2 a) Write what each celebration is.

- 1 Knowledge Day is _____
- 2 A school's anniversary is _____
- 3 Teachers' Day is _____
- 4 Graduation Day is _____

b) Write about any other four celebrations at school that you know or have. Use the sentences in a) as examples.

